International Workshop on Network for Translingual Japanese (IWNTJ2026)

Broome, August 26-28, 2026

Place: Broome, Western Australia

Venue: Mangrove Hotel, St Mary's College Broome and Nyamba Buru Yawuru

Capacity: 50 participants

Conference Chairs: Prof. Makiko Matsuda (Tokyo Metropolitan University)

Prof. Emi Otsuji (University of Technology Sydney)

This international workshop will coincide with the Shinju Matsuri (Festival of the Pearl), Broome's premier cultural celebration that honors the town's multicultural pearling heritage. By scheduling IWNTJ 2026 during this festival period, we aim to create meaningful connections between academic discussions on translingual practices and the living maritime multicultural traditions of Broome.

Organizers: Grant-in-Aid for Scientific Research (A), JSPS "International Collaborative Research on Translingual Networks Contributing to the Design of a Mobility-Based Society" Grant No. 24H00090
International Network for Translingual Japanese (INTJ)
Co-organizer: St Mary's College, Broome, Australian Network for Japanese as Community Language
Supported by: Japan Foundation, Sydney
